

Win The Battle!

Throwing/Arm Strength Camp

The “Win The Battle!” Foundation is a non-profit organization that offers support and resources to children and adolescents who have fought or are fighting cancer or other debilitating diseases, in addition to the families who have fought the battle along with them.

The foundation specifically targets those kids who are or were athletes or sports fans, while fighting their “battles”. Whether a competitive or recreational participant or an ardent fan, we believe that sports and athletics play a huge role in the healing process, as well as provide outstanding networking opportunities for support.

All funds received by “Win The Battle!” are distributed to worthy candidates in full or distributed to other research/support organizations.

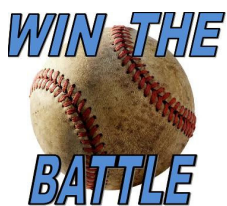

One of the most overlooked and neglected baseball skills is the simple act of throwing. You have to throw the ball strong and accurate to succeed, whether you’re a pitcher, catcher, infielder or outfielder! This camp will focus on arm strength and accuracy, in addition to throwing and pitching mechanics of our young athletes to help them get ahead of their competition.

- The Camp is open to youth players, ages 12 through 14 (based on Spring 2010 playing age) and will be held at the 10,000sf NJJBA Indoor Practice Facility (9374 W. 58th Ave.) in Arvada.
 - Cost of the camp is $75 per participant and includes a T-Shirt.
 - Camp begins on December 6th and will run for 6 weeks through January 28th, 2010 (with a partial break during Christmas/New Year’s from Dec. 21-Jan. 6). There will be 1 hour slots, 2x per week on Thursday evenings and Sunday mornings for a full 12 hours of instruction!
